

INSPIRE Editor - Clinical Decision Making

Volunteer opportunity

Name of position: INSPIRE Editor: Clinical Decision Making

Start date: As soon as possible

Term: 3 years

Number of vacancies: 1

Meetings: Occasional online meetings or webinars with Senior Editors and Clinical Decision Making editorial team

Contact: Gareth Brennan, gareth.brennan@rcophth.ac.uk

About the position

INSPIRE is the College's online learning platform which aims to provide structured learning pathways and coordinated educational programmes to support life-long clinical learning and professional development.

As an INSPIRE Editor you will need to be committed to and contribute to the platform as a whole. You will lead the Clinical Decision Making editorial team and oversee the creation, quality control, and uploading of Clinical Decision Making content to INSPIRE. You will be assisted by a Co-Editor who will be an Ophthalmology Trainee. You will receive specific training on the use of the platform required to become an Editor.

You will work as part of a team with the Chief Editor, Digital Learning subcommittee, and College staff to contribute to the overall direction of development of the platform, promote its work, and to maximise its potential.

Criteria for position

- Consultant or SAS doctor
- Member of the College (Fellow, Member, Affiliate Member, Associate Member)
- Registration with GMC, with Licence/Fitness to Practice Up-to-date appraisal and revalidation
- Demonstrable commitment to continuing professional development
- Clinical experience in the UK
- Delivery of postgraduate and other relevant teaching
- Specialist clinical / professional experience in the relevant field
- Active involvement in teaching ophthalmology
- Ability to communicate using good written and verbal skills with all stakeholders, eg: learners, educators and colleagues
- Ability to work to tight timescales
- Video editing skills are desirable but not essential

Benefits

By volunteering with the College as an INSPIRE Editor, you can play an active role in quality assuring, curating and creating educational material for Ophthalmologists and Eyecare Professionals in the UK and overseas. You will have the opportunity to work with colleagues, staff and external organisations to develop your leadership, teamwork and subject knowledge, as well as building your professional network. As part of this, we will also provide you with professional development opportunities to support you in your role.

How to apply

The ROYAL COLLEGE of OPHTHALMOLOGISTS

To apply for this exciting opportunity, please complete the volunteer application form including your CV. Please feel free to email Gareth Brennan gareth.brennan@rcophth.ac.uk if you have any questions. All eligible individuals will be contacted via email. Eligible individuals will be asked to attend an online interview.